

A Happy Day

A Small Moment Story

By Rhea Livekar

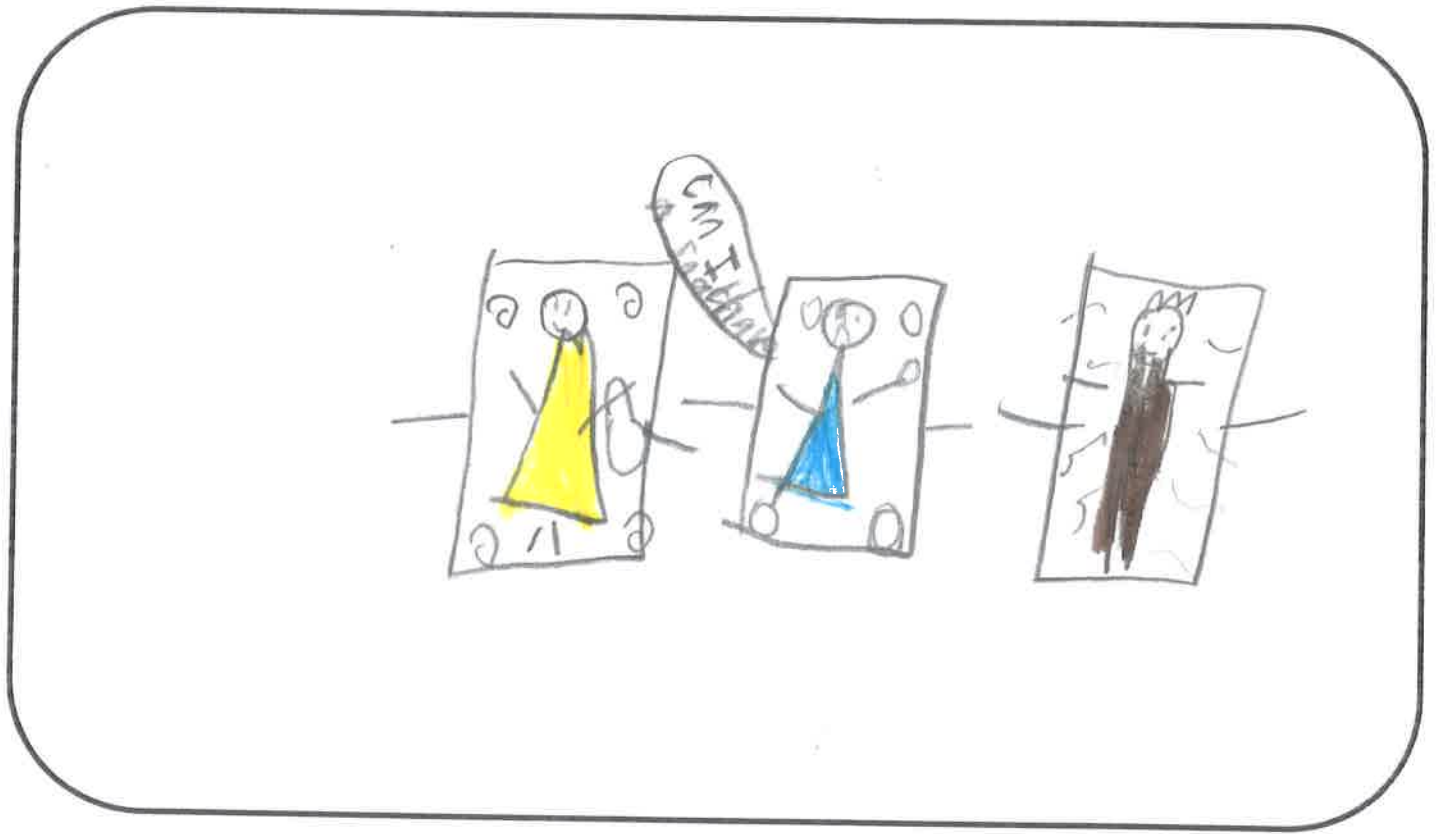

The day my baby sister Rayna was born was the best day of my life. I was happy as a bird. I was jumping up and down and smiling. I wanted to see my baby sister rite now.

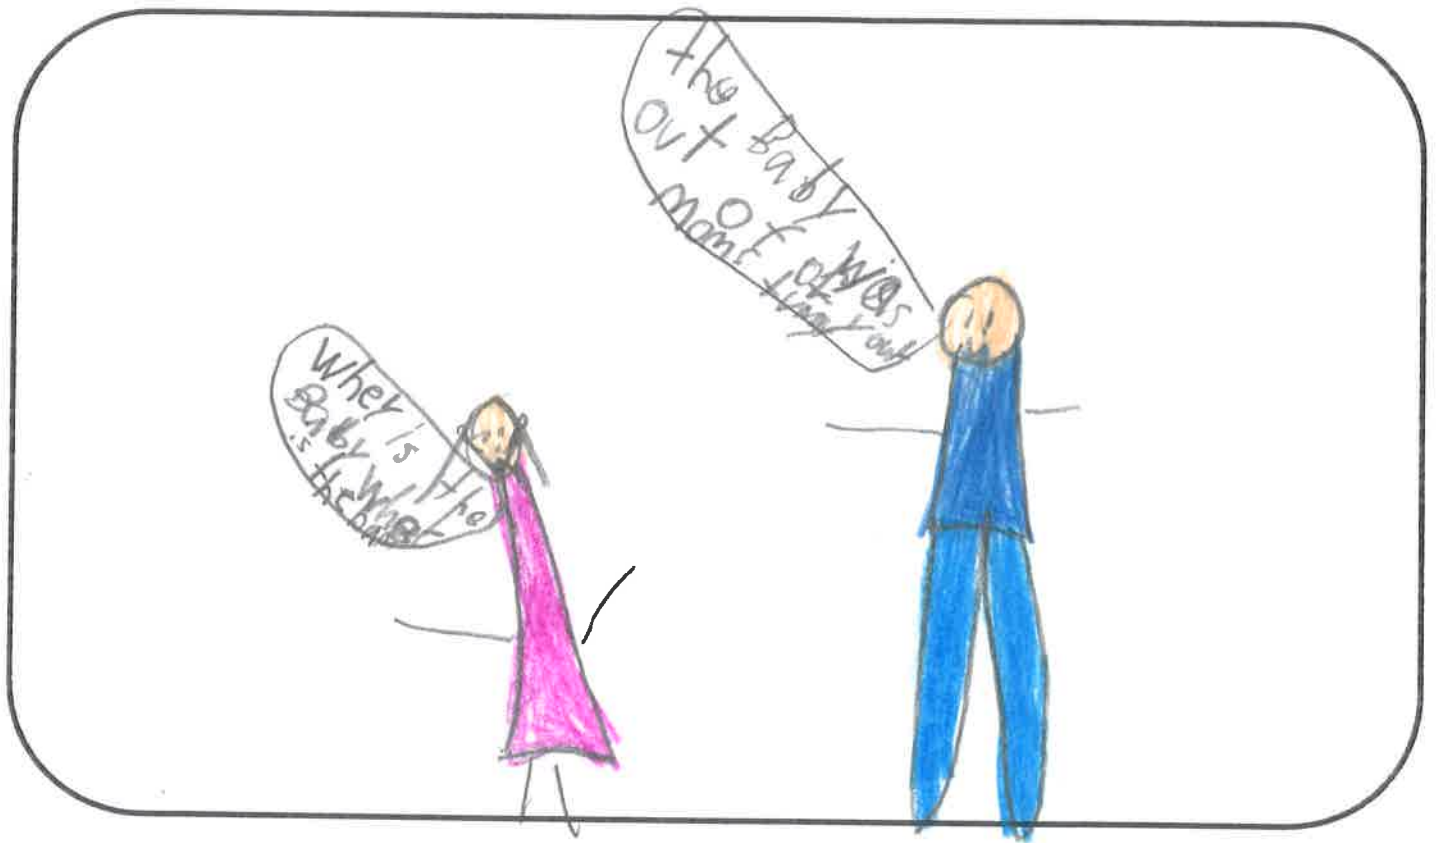

100 65

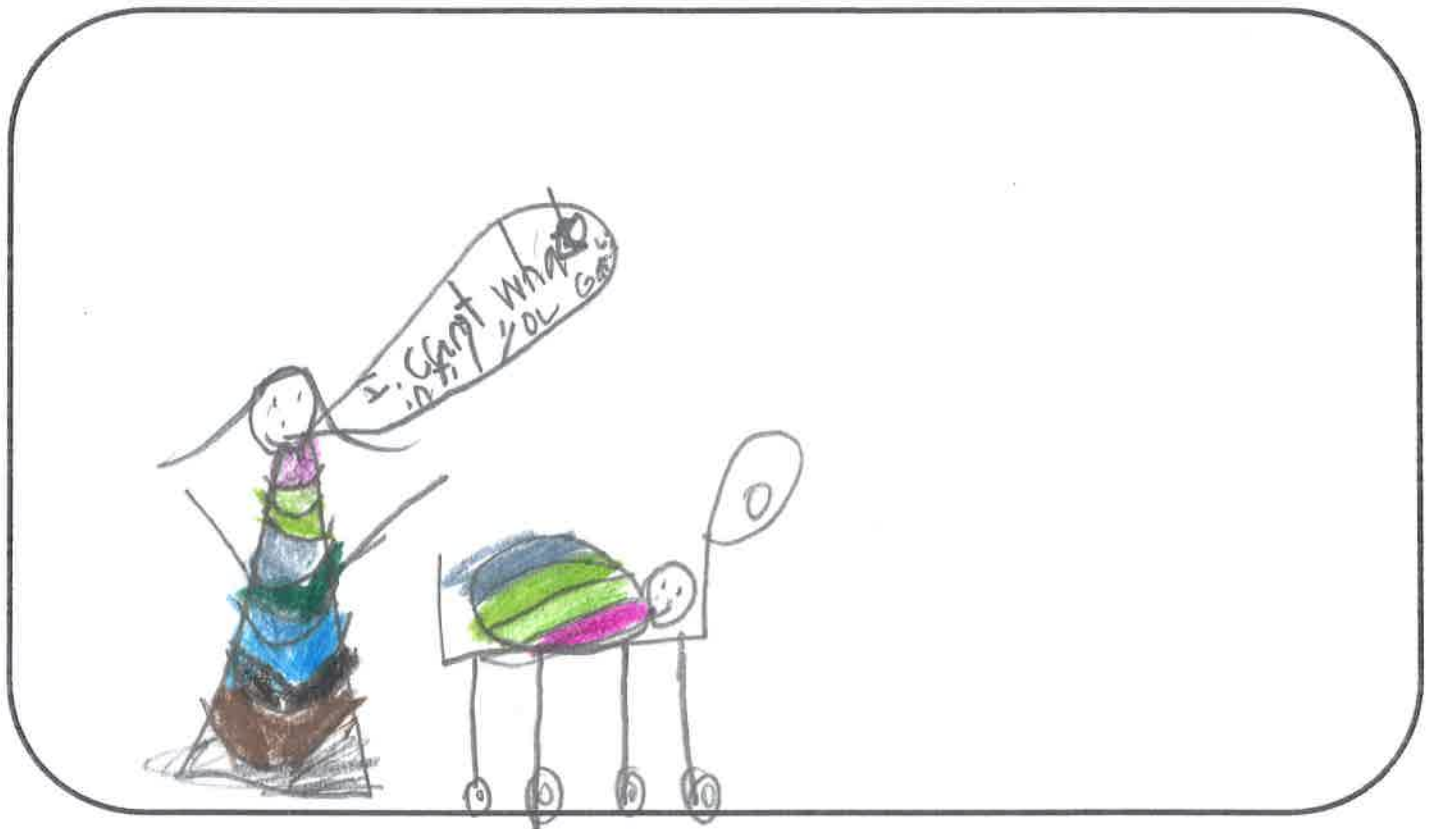

In the car I was wigling and touching my mamas tummy. I was singing abcd. I hopped into the car. Vroom!!

In the waiting room I was humming. I couldn't wait until my baby was born. "Can I have a snack while I wait" I asked my grand parents.

I was yelling "where is the baby!!!!" My smile was touching ear to ear. My dad told me that my baby sister was out of mom's tummy. I was going crazy!

Finally me and my baby sister made eye contact. We smiled at each other. We became best sisters and friends. I was adoring her every day. She was cute as a kitten. Now I can't wait until Rayna grows up.

About the Author

Rhea lives New Jersey. Rhea is almost six and a half. Rhea has a little sister named Rayna. Rhea goes to HPMS. Rhea was born in 2009, July 29. Rhea had a pet fish before. Rhea loves her family somuch.